

Abundance: 101

Lesson 4 Law of Tithing

Hello everyone,

I bet the color choices you are making in the cloths you wear has changed a little since our last meeting. I sure Hope none of you guys have wives or girlfriends asking you to start wearing pink boxers shorts!!!

Today I want to talk about the law of tithing. My Angels tell me to be abundant and prosper we must practice the Law of Tithing. This is a law of money abundance. You must give ten percent of the money you earn back to where you receive you spiritual substance from.

Money is energy and it comes from God. The more we give the more we will receive in financial wealth. I know this is hard to understand for most people. But it is the way to receive more financial wealth/abundance into you life.

Some people say that you should give the ten percent to your church. I myself believe you should give it to wherever you get your spiritual substance from.

I get mine from nature which to me is Gods church. I know people in Alcoholics Anonymous they get their spiritual substance there so that's where they give it.

Search within your own heart and really decide where you get you spiritual substance from. Then start tithing ten percent of your income there.

Trust me you WILL see a difference in how fast your abundance starts coming to you.
